Attorney General Rules Van Patten Election Illegal

Law Requires That Chairman Be Elected in June Not April

Supervisor David Van Patten's election as chairman of the Lake county board, and as ex-officio chairman of the board of review, was an illegal action according to a ruling rendered by Attorney General George F. Barrett. The Attorney General's opinion was contained in a letter received yesterday by State's Attorney Harry A. Hall.

Doubt as to the legality of the board's action in electing Van Patten chairman, arose when it was pointed out by Attorney Jack Bairstow that the supervisors elected its 1941 chairman at a session of the recessed and re-convened September meeting. Bairstow also directed attention of board members to the fact that actually only two sessions of county boards are recognized by state law, the June and September meetings. All other meetings are either special meetings or recessed and re-convened sessions of these meetings.

Van Patten's election as head of the board of supervisors and ex-officio chairman of the board of review has resulted in giving the tax reviewing body two Democratic members and one Republican in a county where the Republicans are entitled to a majority membership.

Judge Perry L. Persons appointed Lyle Gourley, Highland Park Republican, Saturday to replace D. H. Minto of Antioch, whose term expired. Chairman Van Patten and Ivan Harlow, Zion, the other two members, are both Democrats.

The state's attorney, who is legal advisor of the county board, said he would recommend that the board hold a new election at the July meeting.

MRS. TECHERT DIES SUDDENLY

Second Operation Proves Fatal; Funeral Held Wednesday

Although she had been ill for some weeks, Mrs. Leota Techert's death Monday in the Kenosha hospital was a genuine shock to her many friends. Mrs. Techert had undergone an operation at the hospital several weeks ago, and after regaining her strength somewhat, had returned to the hospital for a second operation.

She was born in Antioch 47 years ago, and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hayes.

Survivors include her husband, William; two sons, William, Jr., and Charles, and a sister, Mrs. Myrtle Hufnagel, all of Antioch.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon in the Strang funeral home. The Rev. Philip T. Bohi, Des Plaines, formerly of Antioch, and the Rev. W. C. Henslee officiated.

Burial was in Hillside cemetery.

Mrs. Techert had been an active member of the Antioch Royal Neighbor chapter, and held the office of receiver.

Bartlett Is Vice-President of County Municipal League

Village President George B. Bartlett of Antioch was elected a vice-president of the Lake County Municipal League at its annual meeting Friday evening in Bonnie Brook Country club.

Arthur E. Suter, Libertyville village president, was chosen president to succeed Mayor Richard F. Hir of Zion, who has served two terms.

The new vice-presidents include Mayor Frank G. Wallin of Waukegan, Bartlett, and Bernard J. Juron, city attorney of Highwood and Lake Villa.

John C. McNeil, Lake Forest city manager, is the new secretary, City Clerk V. C. Musser of Highland Park, treasurer, and Hir, President E. C. Hook of Grayslake and President Arthur J. Amundsen of Fox Lake are new directors.

Three Channel Lake youths were taken into custody by the Lake county sheriff's department Sunday and confessed to burglarizing a tavern and several cottages in the community within recent months. They were picked up after Mrs. Regina Kule, Chicago, reported that the summer house she was renting had been entered and a radio taken. The youths admitted taking the radio and also that they had taken cigarettes and liquor, which they sold, from Smith's Sled Inn.

Mrs. W. R. Williams spent last week in Chicago as the guest of Mrs. C. O. Dorchester.

Local Boy Granted State F.F.A. Degree

Albert Smith, junior student of the vocational agriculture department of the Antioch Township High school, received his third, or State Farmer degree, at the state convention of the Illinois Association of Future Farmers of America held June 12 at the University of Illinois.

Young Smith received his degree by virtue of the fact that he stands high in scholarship and that he has more than $250 invested in farm projects. He has made an enviable record with his sheep production and poultry projects. As an added award for his attainments he received a Future Farmer gold key.

All-Star Grappling Show Slated for Peg's Arena Friday

Von Schacht-Virag, Silverstein-Millich to Appear in Double Windup

A double main event, featuring four of the nation's top heavyweight contenders will headline the second all-star all-professional wrestling card of the summer season to be presented in the Grayslake arena Friday night June 20.

One of the twin features will pit 6ft. 5in., 245 lb., Friedrich von Schacht, the German heavyweight champion, against barrel-chested Eddie Virag, 1936 Olympic wrestling champion on the Hungarian team, in a sensational return match. Last week the pair met in a bruising semi-windup match on the initial card of the season at Grayslake, and staged one of the wildest matches seen here in many a moon.

The other half of the double feature brings together the great "Ruffy" Silverstein, undefeated in more than three years of professional wrestling and widely acclaimed as the uncrowned champion of all the heavyweights, and Joe Hillock, national titleholder of Yugoslavia. Both Ruffy and Hillock are clean, scientific wrestlers and both will be struggling to keep their spotless records clean, so fans may expect some real wrestling . . . minus the grunts and groans.

ANTIOCH BOYS ATTEND CHICAGO LAMB SHOW

Three Antioch boys are $110.46 richer, following their trip Tuesday to the Fat Stock show held in the Amphitheatre at the Chicago Union stock yards where they exhibited and sold 14 head of spring lambs.

Elmer Hartnell, a local school boy, placed 13th in class of 20 pens of 5 lambs each. Albert Smith and Robert Severon were the other exhibitors from the local school.

Three hundred and seventy lambs were shown by 73 boys from the middle west. The lambs averaged 82 pounds, and all of them were sold after the show.

The top of the regular market that day was $11.65, but the average price received by the boys was $12.17, or $8.81 per head. The 14 head sold by the local boys netted them $110.46.

ANTIOCH F. F. A. PLACES FIRST IN ACTIVITY CONTEST

In an activity contest sponsored among the 18 vocational agriculture high schools of northeastern Illinois during the past school year, the Antioch Chapter of Future Farmers of America place first.

It scored 1200 points out of a possible 1500 on the score card. Credit was allowed for having judging teams, public speaking contestants, father and son banquet, co-operative marketing, athletic contests, participation in thrift banking and other activities.

The Antioch chapter, under the advisement of C. L. Kutil, has been a consistent winner for the past ten years. This is the third time for the local chapter to win first honors.

FCY to Visit Mooseheart

On Sunday afternoon, June 22, the Federated Christian Youth will tour Mooseheart. They will leave the Libertyville Methodist Church at 1:30 p.m. This should be an unusually interesting visit and anyone between the ages of 20 and 35 is invited to attend. Plans for the evening are not yet complete.

Hold Von Holwede Hearings Today

Scant Notice Heralds Renewal of Examination of "Irregular" Certificate

On only a 24-hour notice, although a week's advance notice had been requested by many of those concerned, a hearing on the status of a certificate under which Hans von Holwede had been teaching at Antioch Township High school was being conducted very quietly at Springfield this morning.

Antioch residents interested in the case did not receive notices of the meeting until yesterday morning, and appealed to John Wieland, state superintendent of public instruction, for postponement until Monday afternoon. It was also pointed out that the meeting was set for a date when James McMullen, prominent member of the Antioch high school board, was away on a trip and might be unable to attend.

Von Holwede is charged with having obtained a state teaching certificate through irregular methods. W. C. Petty, whose term as Lake county superintendent of schools expires next year, has interceded for him a number of times in the past. The hearing is a continuation of one held this spring, when the furor it aroused led J. O. Austin, Antioch high school principal, to request a delay until after the close of the school year, in the interests of the high school students, whose work was suffering as a result of the high tides of feeling in the community.

Three Pickard Employees are Given Awards

Tokens of Appreciation for Long Service Presented at Banquet

Three employees of Pickard, Inc., who have been with the noted china decorating and manufacturing company for more than 20 years, were honored at a banquet held last evening in St. Ignatius' guild hall.

The dinner was given by H. A. Pickard, president of the firm, as a "get acquainted party" for employees brought here from Chicago when the decorating studios were brought out, employees who have been working in the plant at Antioch, and new employees of the company. More than 60 were present.

The three employees who were honored are Edward S. Challinor, who has been with the company for 38 years; Mrs. Anna Mylen, who has been with them 24 years, and Miss Pauline Fuchs, with them 22 years. Engraved wrist watches were presented to them. Employees who have been with the company for more than 10 years were also introduced to the gathering.

Challinor is considered one of the leading, if not the foremost, ceramic artists in this country. He is now making his home at Channel Lake, in one of the Gifford cottages. Asked whether he would consider moving to Antioch when the decorating plant was brought out here from Chicago this spring, he replied, "Well, I moved with you when you went out to Ravenswood from the Loop 36 years ago, and I guess I can go to Antioch."

Praises Loyalty

Pickard paid tribute to the loyalty of his employees, five of whom, he states, have been coming out from Chicago from Monday through Friday to help train new workers to take their places, since they themselves are prevented by various circumstances from moving to Antioch permanently.

Displays of magic, and sleight-of-hand feats by Robert Lotz, Chicago, made a decided hit with the audience.

Community singing of old favorite songs was another feature of the evening, with Hans von Holwede acting as accompanist.

The dinner was served by the ladies' guild of St. Ignatius church.

The Pickard company has been in business more than 44 years. Founded originally as a china decorating concern, the company has of late years been conducting research in the manufacture of fine china as well. The plant at Antioch was established for experimental purposes. Its success in producing a high quality product equal to wares formerly imported from Europe led to its enlargement and the consolidation of the manufacturing and decorating plants.

Three-year-old Jackie Parks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Parks, who was taken into custody by the Lake county sheriff's department Sunday and confessed to burglarizing a tavern and several cottages in the community within recent months. They were picked up after Mrs. Regina Kule, Chicago, reported that the summer house she was renting had been entered and a radio taken. The youths admitted taking the radio and also that they had taken cigarettes and liquor, which they sold, from Smith's Sled Inn.

Mrs. W. R. Williams spent last week in Chicago as the guest of Mrs. C. O. Dorchester.

Marked $5 Bill Brings About Caretaker's Arrest

A marked bill proved the downfall of a handyman and caretaker at Bob Hardman's resort on Bluff lake when he was suspected of taking money which Mrs. Hardman and a bartender at the resort had missed from their purses.

Last Tuesday Mrs. Hardman discovered that $43 had vanished from a purse in her room. Acting on instructions from the Lake county sheriff's office, she placed a marked $5 bill in her purse.

The caretaker, Roy King of Lake Geneva, was later discharged, and was taken into custody by deputies as he was walking away from the Hardman resort. The marked bill and about $45 more were found on his person, and he was taken to the county jail on warrants charging grand and petit larceny.

Mrs. Robert Wilton and Mrs. Lester Nelson will be hostesses to the O. E. S. officers' club at a picnic supper at the Wilton home Friday evening at 6:30.

Miss Ada Buffon arrived here Monday from New York City for a visit with her mother, Mrs. Harry Hand, and his grandmother, Mrs. W. R. Williams.

Five hundred firemen from all parts of Lake county, as well as from adjoining counties, are expected here Monday evening, accompanied by their ladies, to attend the annual business meeting of the Lake County Firemen's association, to which Antioch will be host for the fourth consecutive time.

Roy L. Alsip, secretary of the Illinois State Firemen's association, and fire chief of Champaign, has been secured as speaker.

Permission to close Main street from Lake street to Orchard street for outdoor dancing, if weather permits, has been requested of the state highway department. The "Mardi Gras" part of the evening will be open to the public.

The usual visit at the fire station, and registration of the arrival of the visiting firemen will be followed with a business meeting in St. Ignatius' Guild hall and annual reports by the committees.

Alsip will speak on legislative matters of interest to firemen.

At the close of the meeting of the firemen, their guests will gather in the building formerly occupied by the Chevrolet garage for refreshments.

Providing weather permits, canvas will be spread on Main street for the dancing, which will start around 9 o'clock. Music will be broadcast over loudspeaker system furnished by T. J. Tronson.

Attorney General Rules Van Patten Election Illegal

Law Requires That Chairman Be Elected in June Not April'

Supervisor David Van Patten's election as chairman of the Lake county board, and as ex-officio chairman of the board of review, was an illegal action according to a ruling rendered by Attorney General George F. Barrett. The Attorney General's opinion was contained in a letter received yesterday by State's Attorney Harry A. Hall.

Doubt as to the legality of the board's action in electing Van Patten chairman, arose when it was pointed out by Attorney Jack Bairstow that the supervisors elected its 1941 chairman at a session of the recessed and re-convened September meeting. Bairstow also directed attention of board members to the fact that actually only two sessions of county boards are recognized by state law, the June and September meetings. All other meetings are either special meetings or recessed and re-convened sessions of these meetings.

Van Patten's election as head of the board of supervisors and ex-officio chairman of the board of review has resulted in giving the tax reviewing body two Democratic members and one Republican in a county where the Republicans are entitled to a majority membership.

Judge Perry L. Persons appointed Lyle Gourney, Highland Park Republican, Saturday to replace D. H. Minto of Antioch, whose term expired. Chairman Van Patten and Ivan Harlow, Zion, the other two members, are both Democrats.

The state's attorney, who is legal advisor of the county board, said he would recommend that the board hold a new election at the July meeting.

MRS. TECHERT DIES SUDDENLY

Second Operation Proves Fatal; Funeral Held Wednesday

Although she had been ill for some weeks, Mrs. Leota Techert's death Monday in the Kenosha hospital was a genuine shock to her many friends. Mrs. Techert had undergone an operation at the hospital several weeks ago, and after regaining her strength somewhat, had returned to the hospital for a second operation.

She was born in Antioch 47 years ago, and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Haynes.

Survivors include her husband, William; two sons, William, Jr., and Charles, and a sister, Mrs. Myrtle Huiendick, all of Antioch.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon in the Strang funeral home. The Rev. Philip T. Bohi, Des Plaines, formerly of Antioch, and the Rev. W. C. Hensel officiated.

Burial was in Hillside cemetery.

Mrs. Techert had been an active member of the Antioch Royal Neighbor chapter, and held the office of receiver.

Bartlett Is Vice-President of County Municipal League

Village President George B. Bartlett of Antioch was elected a vice-president of the Lake County Municipal League at its annual meeting Friday evening in Bonnie Brook Country club.

Arthur E. Suter, Libertyville village president, was chosen president to succeed Mayor Richard F. Hise of Zion, who has served two terms.

The new vice-presidents include Mayor Frank G. Wallin of Waukegan, Bartlett, and Bernard J. Juron, city attorney of Highwood and Lake Villa.

John C. McNicol, Lake Forest city manager, is the new secretary, City Clerk V. C. Musser of Highland Park, treasurer, and Hise, President E. C. Hook of Grayslake and President Arthur J. Amundsen of Fox Lake are new directors.

Three Channel Lake youths were taken into custody by the Lake county sheriff's department Sunday and confessed to burglarizing a tavern and several cottages in the community within recent months. They were picked up after Mrs. Regina Kule, Chicago, reported that the summer house she was renting had been entered and a radio taken. The youths admitted taking the radio and also that they had taken cigarettes and liquor, which they sold, from Smith's Slide Inn.

Mrs. W. R. Williams spent last week in Chicago as the guest of Mrs. C. O. Dorchester.

Local Boy Granted State F.F.A. Degree

Albert Smith, junior student of the vocational agriculture department of the Antioch Township High school, received his third, or State Farmer degree, at the state convention of the Illinois Association of Future Farmers of America held June 12 at the University of Illinois.

Young Smith received his degree by virtue of the fact that he stands high in scholarship and that he has more than $250 invested in farm projects. He has made an enviable record with his sheep production and poultry projects. As an added award for his attainments he received a Future Farmer gold key.

All-Star Grappling Show Slated for Peg's Arena Friday

Von Schacht-Virag, Silverstein-Millich to Appear in Double Windup

A double main event, featuring four of the nation's top heavyweight contenders will headline the second all-star all-professional wrestling card of the summer season to be presented in the Grayslake arena Friday night June 20.

One of the twin features will pit 6 ft. 5 in., 245 lb., Friedrich von Schacht, the German heavyweight champion, against barrel-chested Eddie Virag, 1936 Olympic wrestling champion on the Hungarian team, in a sensational return match. Last week the pair met in a bruising semi-windup match on the initial card of the season at Grayslake, and staged one of the wildest matches seen here in many a moon.

The other half of the double feature brings together the great "Ruffy" Silverstein, undefeated in more than three years of professional wrestling and widely acclaimed as the uncrowned champion of all the heavyweights, and Joe Hillock, national titleholder of Yugoslavia. Both Ruffy and Hillock are clean, scientific wrestlers and both will be struggling to keep their spotless records clean, so fans may expect some real wrestling . . . minus the grunts and groans.

ANTIOCH BOYS ATTEND CHICAGO LAMB SHOW

Three Antioch boys are $10.46 richer, following their trip Tuesday to the Fat Stock show held in the Amphitheatre at the Chicago Union stock yards where they exhibited and sold 14 head of spring lambs.

Elmer Hartnell, a local school boy, placed 13th in a class of 20 pens of 5 lambs each. Albert Smith and Robert Severson were the other exhibitors from the local school.

Three hundred and seventy lambs were shown by 73 boys from the middle west. The lambs averaged 82 pounds, and all of them were sold after the show.

The top of the regular market that day was $11.05, but the average price received by the boys was $12.17, or $8.81 per head. The 14 head sold by the local boys netted them $10.46.

ANTIOCH F. F. A. PLACES FIRST IN ACTIVITY CONTEST

In an activity contest sponsored among the 18 vocational agriculture high schools of northeastern Illinois during the past school year, the Antioch Chapter of Future Farmers of America place first.

It scored 1200 points out of a possible 1500 on the score card. Credit was allowed for having judging teams, public speaking contestants, father and son banquet, co-operative marketing, athletic contests, participation in thrift banking and other activities.

The Antioch chapter, under the advisement of C. L. Kutil, has been a consistent winner for the past ten years. This is the third time for the local chapter to win first honors.

FCY to Visit Mooseheart

On Sunday afternoon, June 22, the Federated Christian Youth will tour Mooseheart. They will leave the Libertyville Methodist Church at 1:30 p.m. This should be an unusually interesting visit and anyone between the ages of 20 and 35 is invited to attend. Plans for the evening are not yet complete.

Hold Von Holwede Hearings Today

On only a 24-hour notice, although a week's advance notice had been requested by many of those concerned, a hearing on the status of a certificate under which Hans von Holwede had been teaching at Antioch Township High school was being conducted very quietly at Springfield this morning.

Antioch residents interested in the case did not receive notices of the meeting until yesterday morning, and appealed to John Wieland, state superintendent of public instruction, for postponement until Monday afternoon. It was also pointed out that the meeting was set for a date when James McMullen, prominent member of the Antioch high school board, was away on a trip and might be unable to attend.

Von Holwede is charged with having obtained a state teaching certificate through irregular methods. W. C. Petty, whose term as Lake county superintendent of schools expires next year, has interceded for him a number of times in the past. The hearing is a continuance of one held this spring, when the furor it aroused led J. O. Austin, Antioch high school principal, to request a delay until after the close of the school year, in the interests of the high school students, whose work was suffering as a result of the high tides of feeling in the community.

Three Pickard Employees are Given Awards

Tokens of Appreciation for Long Service Presented at Banquet

Three employees of Pickard, Inc., who have been with the noted china decorating and manufacturing company for more than 20 years, were honored at a banquet held last evening in St. Ignatius' guild hall.

The dinner was given by H. A. Pickard, president of the firm, as a "get acquainted party" for employees brought here from Chicago when the decorating studios were brought out, employees who have been working in the plant at Antioch, and new employees of the company. More than 60 were present.

The three employees who were honored are Edward S. Challinor, who has been with the company for 38 years; Mrs. Anna Mylen, who has been with them 24 years, and Miss Pauline Fuchs, with them 22 years. Engraved wrist watches were presented to them. Employees who have been with the company for more than 10 years were also introduced to the gathering.

Challinor is considered one of the leading, if not the foremost, ceramic artists in this country. He is now making his home at Channel Lake, in one of the Gifford cottages. Asked whether he would consider moving to Antioch when the decorating plant was brought out here from Chicago this spring, he replied, "Well, I moved with you when you went out to Ravenswood from the Loop 36 years ago, and I guess I can go to Antioch."

Pickard paid tribute to the loyalty of his employees, five of whom, he states, have been coming out from Chicago from Monday through Friday to help train new workers to take their places, since they themselves are prevented by various circumstances from moving to Antioch permanently.

Displays of magic, and sleight-of-hand feats by Robert Lotz, Chicago, made a decided hit with the audience.

Community singing of old favorite songs was another feature of the evening, with Hans von Holwede acting as accordion accompanist.

The dinner was served by the ladies' guild of St. Ignatius church.

The Pickard company has been in business more than 44 years. Founded originally as a china decorating concern, the company has of late years been conducting research in the manufacture of fine china as well. The plant at Antioch was established for experimental purposes. Its success in producing a high quality product equal to wares formerly imported from Europe led to its enlargement and the consolidation of the manufacturing and advertising plants.

The Antioch chapter, under the advisement of C. L. Kutil, has been a consistent winner for the past ten years. This is the third time for the local chapter to win first honors.

DOWN THROUGH THE AGES

ANTIOCH COLLEGIANS NAMED ON HONOR ROLL

Ted Larson, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Larson, was one of nineteen members of the senior class of Illinois College, Jacksonville, Ill., to attain the distinction of being named on the Illinois College Honor roll for outstanding scholastic work during the past semester. An honor roll student must maintain an average of "B" or better in all of his academic work.

Mr. Larson was a history major at Illinois College and one of the forty-four members of the senior class to receive A. B. degrees at the commencement exercises held in Jacksonville on Monday, June 9.

Also a communication to the News from the Northern Illinois State Teachers College at DeKalb states that Jack Panowski and Clara Waters were honor roll students at the college for the quarter just closed, according to reports from the registrar. The honor roll requirement is an average of B in all previous work done in the institution.

Following his graduation at DeKalb, Panowski was one of 80 honor students selected from the middle west to take a special course in chemistry and explosives sponsored by the federal government at Purdue university at Lafayette, Ind. After receiving their degree at Purdue the young men will be offered positions by the government in defense industries.

Committees at work on the 1941 show are: Grounds—Bill Wirtz, Harry Gilkerson, and Beckman Bros.; Judging—Jim Davis, Gilbert Clem, C. L. Kutil, and Paul Arndt; Prizes—Alfred Ames, Wilbur Swayer, and Les White; Publicity—A. H. Kohlbusch and Les White.

Kenosha County Show

The Kenosha County Black and White Production show, sponsored by the Kenosha County Holstein Breeders' association, will be held Saturday, June 28, at 10 a.m.

It will take place in Harry Hansen's Woods, one-half mile north of Woodworth, Wis.

One hundred head of Kenosha county's finest Holsteins will be on exhibit.

Prizes of $100 are announced, and a registered heifer calf is to be included among the awards.

Judging contests, games and an afternoon band concert will be held.

There will also be large exhibits of the latest types of farm machinery.

In the evening a dance will be held in the Bristol Community hall, commencing at 9 o'clock, with music by Brande's orchestra. A registered Holstein calf is to be given away at the dance.

A public dinner will be enjoyed on the grounds, and refreshments will be available at booths. Milk will be served free of charge.

Both of these events are expected to draw large crowds. One of them last year had an attendance of two thousand.

Marked $5 Bill Brings About Caretaker's Arrest

A marked bill proved the downfall of a handyman and caretaker at Bob Hardman's resort on Bluff lake when he was suspected of taking money which Mrs. Hardman and a bartender at the resort had missed from their purses.

Last Tuesday Mrs. Hardman discovered that $43 had vanished from a purse in her room. Acting on instructions from the Lake county sheriff's office, she placed a marked $5 bill in her purse.

The caretaker, Roy King of Lake Geneva, was later discharged, and was taken into custody by deputies as he was walking away from the Hardman resort. The marked bill and about $45 more were found on his person, and he was taken to the county jail on warrants charging grand and petit larceny.

State Secretary Will Address Firemen Here

R. L. Alsip of Champaign to Be Speaker at Annual County Meeting

Five hundred firemen from all parts of Lake county, as well as from adjoining counties, are expected here Monday evening, accompanied by their ladies, to attend the annual business meeting of the Lake County Firemen's association, to which Antioch will be host for the fourth consecutive time.

Roy L. Alsip, secretary of the Illinois State Firemen's association, and fire chief of Champaign, has been secured as speaker.

Permission to close Main street from Lake street to Orchard street for outdoor dancing, if weather permits, has been requested of the state highway department. The "Mardi Gras" part of the evening will be open to the public.

The usual visit at the fire station, and registration of the arrival of the visiting firemen, will be followed with a business meeting in St. Ignatius' Guild hall and annual reports by the committees.

Alsip will speak on legislative matters of interest to firemen.

At the close of the meeting of the firemen, their guests will gather in the building formerly occupied by the Chevrolet garage for refreshments.

Providing weather permits, canvas will be spread on Main street for the dancing, which will start around 9 o'clock. Music will be broadcast over a loudspeaker system furnished by T. J. Tronson.

Socialism Isn't Democratic

It is much easier for the people to get the government to maintain proper regulation of private industry than it is to get the government to check on government-owned industry. In the former case the government is a neutral party; in the latter case the government is not a neutral party, and is not likely to regulate without prejudice.

For a government to be democratic it must be neutral. The thing that makes democracy is the ever-present existence of a neutral force with sufficient strength to outweigh any dictatorial group. When the government owns and operates enterprise, its neutral relations with society are destroyed. It becomes less democratic and more dictatorial. Socialism isn't democratic!

Eleven Men Who Know

They've been over in battle-torn Europe, these American war correspondents, and seen modern tanks crash through defenses manned by free men who were brave enough but simply didn't have enough modern equipment of their own to halt the aggressors. Now they have returned to this country, and there is no one with a clearer realization that airplanes and tanks and guns are needed to make a nation safe in today's chaotic world.

Over there in the midst of the war, the machines were either there or they weren't. All too often, they weren't. Now that the reporters are here in the United States, they have time to pause and ask a few important questions: "Where do the machines come from? Are we making sure that America will have enough of them to make its defenses unassailable?"

The answer to the first question, of course, is that industry must make the equipment, and so, through an arrangement made by the National Association of Manufacturers, the eleven noted correspondents are making a tour by air of many of the leading defense plants of the nation. There they are finding the strong, affirmative answer to their second query.

The articles these men are writing for their own newspapers and services are giving the public the facts, which show how determinedly industry has attacked the biggest production job in all history. The stories are big news because the people who are writing them know the meaning of defense in its very broadest terms. They are just as big news in that they will give the people of America the best possible chance to see the central fact—that only industry can do the work of defense production, and that in reality industry represents the main line of national defense!

It is that fact above all others which surely needs driving home till it becomes part and parcel of all public thinking on the key subject of America's security. Viewed thus in perspective, it is hard to overestimate the value of hearing these eleven men report on the plants of America, whence come the guns and tanks and planes for defense!

Achilles' Heel

Representative government in the United States has an Achilles' Heel. It is not unbalanced budgets. That simply leaves the heel exposed. It is not military weakness. That can be cured. It is our lack of understanding of what our system of free enterprise means and what keeps it alive. Millions of otherwise good Americans condone political practices that dangerously undermine this system, not realizing that only so long as it is maintained intact can they continue to enjoy the privileges of "democracy."

Our basic industries are the very foundation of all free enterprise. It is they which have developed our natural resources to the fullest—oil, coal, metals, water-power—sources which are the key to progress and which directly or indirectly make the operation of the free enterprise system possible. Yet it has long been politically popular under the guise of taking a whack at "big business" to attack these basic industries. Promoters of socialism seize every opportunity to push them closer to the brink of government ownership, well knowing that if they are successful they will have taken an essential step toward changing our whole system of government.

Witness the electric industry which today is surrounded on every side by tax-exempt, publicly-owned and operated hydro-electric plants whose main purpose notwithstanding ballyhoo to the contrary, is to put large segments of the private power industry out of business. The drive against the electric industry is a mere part of a vast program whose result would be to ultimately bring under government domination other key industries in the free enterprise system.

If America's basic industries are ever socialized, free enterprise will die. The people of this nation cannot afford to permit the destruction of a system which means so much to the perpetuation of individual freedom, because of scattered shortcomings. The shortcomings can be corrected. The American system of private enterprise, once destroyed, could never be rebuilt.

FIRST JERUSALEM CONFERENCE ON WORLD MISSIONS

LESSON TEXT—Acts 15:6-21.
GOLDEN TEXT—But we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved, even as they.—Acts 15:11.

The conference on missions in Jerusalem was not the result of an appeal to a ruling church organization for a decision, but rather a gathering of the believers from Antioch with those in Jerusalem to confer regarding a serious difference of opinion. The earliest converts to Christianity were Jews, who had come by the way of Judaism into their new faith in Christ. But now, through the preaching of Paul and Barnabas, certain Gentiles had believed in Christ. Their new-found joy was soon clouded by a theological problem. Certain teachers from Judea (Acts 15:1) declared that the Gentiles were not saved unless they came into the Christian faith the way of the fulfillment of the Jewish law. Paul and Barnabas at once realized that this was

I. The Vital Question—Is Salvation by Grace or Works? (vv. 7-11; see also vv. 1-5).

Paul and his fellow workers had rightly apprehended God's plan of salvation apart from works of the law. Paul realized that the entire future of the gospel ministry was in a sense dependent on the solution of this problem. Christianity is the only religious faith in the world that presents justification by grace as the way of redemption; all others follow (more or less) the path of salvation by works.

The question now was: Shall works of the law be mingled with grace—can Jesus Christ alone save men, or is salvation through Jesus Christ plus something else?

How was such a serious question to be settled? Should argument and strife be permitted to go on until the stronger party prevailed? Better judgment indicated the desirability of a friendly discussion and a joint decision with the believers at Jerusalem. This was

II. The Christian Solution—Council Rather Than Controversy (vv. 6, 7, 12-18).

There may be times when it becomes the duty of the Christian worker to take an uncompromising stand for the truth of God and refuse to be moved, come what may. But certainly there should be no such spirit in dealing with differing interpretations of Scripture on the part of sincere and earnest Christian brethren. How much would be gained in the Church today if, instead of magnifying differences and permitting personal desires and ambitions to intervene, men were willing to sit down in the spirit of Christ around the tables of Christian council and brotherhood, presided over and directed by the Holy Spirit (see Acts 15:28).

Observe the full measure of liberty in discussion, the attentive listening to the messages of the brethren. Note also that there were no secret sessions of a "steering committee" and no "steamroller" tactics.

The whole question was honestly and carefully considered by the council at Jerusalem, with the result that there was a vindication of the preachers of God's grace.

James finally spoke, giving the conclusion to which the Holy Spirit had led the conference (see v. 28). Here for all the future we have

III. The God-Given Answer—Salvation Is by Grace (vv. 19-21; see also vv. 22-35).

In his epistle to the Ephesians (Eph. 2:8, 9), Paul succinctly states this truth: "By grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God: not of works, lest any man should boast." The teaching of Scripture is very plain on this point, and we do well to receive it in all its beauty and grace.

Let us observe, however, that the decision in Jerusalem, while it laid no further burden on these Gentile believers (v. 29), did quite properly require of them that, as those who had been saved by grace, they must "walk in newness of life" (Rom. 6:4) which they had in Christ. Paul had the same thought in mind when he supplemented Ephesians 2:8 and 9 with verse 10, declaring that God has ordained that we should walk "in good works."

There are two opposite tendencies (both of which are wrong) in this matter, which consistently hurt the Christian church. The one which we have already stressed tries to mix works with grace, making salvation either entirely or partially by works. Sad to say, some who have sought to avoid this error have gone to the opposite extreme and have done violence to God's plan of salvation by making grace an excuse for sin, using their freedom from law as a justification of lawlessness. We are God's "workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works" (Eph. 2:10).

ENTERITIS TAKES A VERY HEAVY TOLL

A quarter century ago we all thought that hog cholera was about the only swine disease capable of causing much trouble.

But times have changed, and while cholera is still the chief enemy of the swine-producer, the condition called enteritis is easily the second most important swine disease problem.

Enteritis simply means an inflammation of the intestine. It may be caused by a variety of factors, chief among which is infection by a group of germs closely related to the human typhoid organism. Another type of enteritis is caused by microscopic animal parasites called coccidia. Yet another form—the killing swine dysentery—has not been discovered.

Recent experimental work has been done on the question of whether "Necro" (necrotic enteritis), commonly known as shot typhoid, is predisposed by a lack of the Vitamin B complex in the rations, where the rations are low in the Vitamin B element called necrotic acid.

But, regardless of the cause or type of swine enteritis, here are a few hints that are valuable in prevention:

Pigs should be run on clean pastures and kept away from old yards. The rations should be well balanced and contain the essential vitamins and necrotic acid; growing pigs should be properly treated for round worms and other parasites; and feeding and watering equipment must be clean and sanitary.

Herdls are frequently exposed to killing outbreaks of enteritis when newly-purchased pigs are allowed to mix with those on the home premises. New stock should first be inspected by a veterinarian and then should be separated from the home herd for at least a month after purchase.

Naturally, when an outbreak occurs the most important thing is to find out just what type and kind of enteritis has gained access to the herd. This means a herd survey and autopsies by the local veterinarian and, quite often, the assistance of a diagnostic laboratory, if proper steps are to be taken to curb losses.

The editor, however, noted authority on driving. These excerpts are reprinted through courtesy of the Ford Motor Company.)

SKILLED DRIVERS NEVER STUNT

Some drivers think skill behind the wheel consists in doing tricks with a car—driving fast, beating lights, gliding through "stop" signs or generally making the rest of the world miserable.

When a skilled driver watches one of these unskilled operators, he feels rather sorry. He sees a wonderful piece of machinery, glorious roads leading to lovely countryside, a driver with good intellect, good arms, good legs, good eyes. And he sees the whole picture marred because the driver never acquired real driving skill.

Some drivers think they're smart when they do tricks with a car. Actually, if a driver doesn't think right, he can't drive right.

Salt Water and Germs
The theory that "salt water kills germs" is false as proved by laboratory analysis and recent chemical tests of salt water on the eastern Atlantic coast and the western Lake Michigan. The bacterial content at both places was about the same.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

By Edward C. Wayne

Sinking of 'Robin Moor' by Submarine Is Investigated by State Department; Byrnes, Jackson Named to High Court As Stone Is Appointed Chief Justice

(EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper.)
(Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

U. S. citizens are getting a first-hand look at the famous Nazi fighting plane, the Messerschmitt, now on display in a New York theater. Proceeds from the showing of this plane will go to buy "bundles for Britain." This is the first time that one of these aerial fighters has been shown in the United States.

COURT:
Line-Up Changed

President Roosevelt's appointment of Harlan Fiske Stone to replace Charles Evans Hughes as chief justice of Supreme court was announced at the same time as he sent to the senate the names of two new associate justices he had picked, Sen. James Byrnes of South Carolina and Attorney General Robert H. Jackson of New York.

A Republican, Justice Stone is 68 years old and was appointed to the Supreme court by President Coolidge in 1925. His appointment as chief justice came as somewhat of a surprise for many sources in Washington believed that Attorney General Jackson would get the nomination.

Senator Byrnes, who has been a strong administration supporter in the senate since the early days of the New Deal, will succeed Justice McKeynolds who retired some time ago. Jackson will take the place left vacant by Justice Stone's elevation to chief justice.

U. S.:

Ship Worry

The Robin Moor, sunk in the South Atlantic well within the United States neutrality zone, was declared by its few survivors to have been sunk by a German U-boat, the first in what most observers expected would be a series of international incidents similar to that of the Lusitania in the last war.

The Robin Moor went to the bottom, bearing seven passengers including a little child, and the first lifeboat, the only one immediately found, contained only 11 survivors. The other two boats, according to the evidence of Brazilian ship people who went in search, showed on the surface of the sea some evidence that they had been lost.

The first notice of the loss was given as "the result of a storm at sea," but the survivors told their rescuers that they had been torpedoed.

Following these reports by survivors, authoritative sources in Washington indicated that work on a formal note of protest to Germany was under way by the state department.

It was pointed out that in such a note restitution for loss of American life and property was only what the Nazis could exact.

While at first the White House had announced that "judgment should be withheld" on the incident, later word came that there seemed to be "no longer any reason" for that.

The state department's report was first made public by Sumner Welles at his press conference. He based his findings on the account of the sinking as it came from Walter J. Linnicutt, U. S. consul at Pernambuco, Brazil. Linnicutt spent nearly five hours getting the stories of the rescued persons.

DUCE:

Calls Names

Celebrating the year that Italy has been in the war, Mussolini made a speech to his puppet legislators in which he defied the United States to become more active in the war, after saying that this country is "really in the war already."

He also likened President Roosevelt to Sulla, one of the bloodiest and most tyrannical of all the Roman dictators.

The Axis would certainly win, Mussolini told his people, and the sole effect this country's attitude would have would be to lengthen the struggle.

He made no references to Italy's losses of two-thirds of her empire, or the 200,000 prisoners taken in North Africa, nor the losses Italy had suffered to her fleet.

Mussolini simply placed England on notice that she was doomed, that all her positions in the war had been taken, and that if America wanted to send aid she would find no place to send it.

STRIKES:
A Formula

Ever since President Roosevelt's fireside chat the nation had been waiting for a strike-prevention formula, realizing that in the presidential speech there had been a definite pledge to halt defense work stoppages in labor disputes.

It remained for the strike at North American Aviation's plant at Inglewood, Calif., where 12,000 men engaged in building $196,000,000 in warplanes, to provide the answer, and the United States to wonder what kind of an answer it was.

Swiftly, methodically, the troops moved in and took over the plant, began weeding out the union's labor leaders, inspected even the contents of lunch boxes of returning workers, and put the plant back into production within two days that were reported to be "approaching normal."

Within 24 hours planes were rolling off assembly lines into test flights, and on the surface all was reported very well.

But observers began asking themselves questions during the next few days when trouble of various types began to appear, not at North American Aviation, but at other plants.

Several things bothered people who were wondering whether the use of soldiers to take over plants would be a workable system of strike-ending.

Some wondered if perhaps the strikers at Inglewood weren't a bit too willing to have the plant taken over. Others wondered if, perhaps, the strikers' demand of the government that the pay be raised to 37½ cents an hour, or 12½ cents an hour more than they were asking of private industry, and the same wage that the government, they claimed, was now paying workers of similar skill in similar jobs.

The union leaders were equipping men with signs reading "hold out and remember the army can't make planes—but their pleas fell for the most part on deaf ears, and the second day of the army occupation they voted to go back to a body.

But the army wouldn't take some of them back, ordered others reclassified and stayed in the army at $21 a month instead of $20 or better a week.

C.I.O.:

Red or Pink

One of the by-products of the Ingewood strike and its result was that the Dies committee findings came to the fore and began to render some sort of answer to the popular controversy of the past two years, whether the C.I.O. is red, white or just pink.

Rival unions used to call the C.I.O. red—the C.I.O. maintained it was pure white, and the Dies committee just hinted around that it might be somewhat pink—that there were Communists in the C.I.O., but that it was not proven that it was Communist-controlled or not.

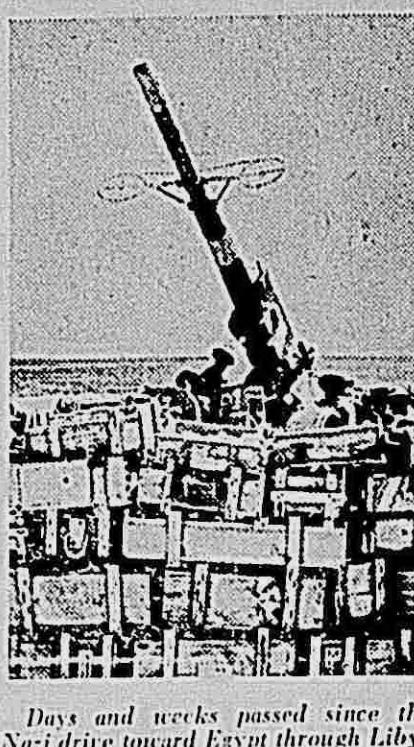

Then came a wide, serious series of defense or partial defense labor troubles, most of them involving one branch or another of the C.I.O.

Alabama's Representative Starnes, active head of the Dies body, promptly made public that each of the striking unions had a Communist or an ex-Communist as its active leader.

In the aircraft industry, Chairman Frankenstein of the aircraft division, who had called the Ingewood strike "outlaw," "wifecat" and "unauthorized," found himself placarded in two ways—as a jockus and as a traitor to the cause by the very union over which he had jurisdiction just as soon as he admitted that the junior local union chiefs were, indeed, Communists.

He ordered them suspended from their jobs, then went to the Inglewood scene of action and made a plea to the men to go back to work. His plea was unsuccessful.

A 'Hold-Out'

Days and weeks passed since the Nazi drive toward Egypt through Libya began and although Axis forces took many points beyond Tobruk they were not able to capture the besieged city itself. Here is British anti-aircraft position inside the Tobruk perimeter. Protected by Italian ammunition boxes filled with stones, they provide ample protection from the splinters of bombs dropped by Nazi fliers.

SYRIA:

Gets in War

Names of the world's oldest towns, including such as Damascus, believed the oldest, and Tyre, considered its closest rival, got into the front page headlines as the British sailed on into Syria, following the expectations of everyone.

Vichy dispatches told of resistance, but except in certain spots the resistance was of the "token" variety—a few shots fired and then the French troops laying down their arms, later to join with the British passively, if not actively.

The invading armies were made up of British and Free French under DeGaulle, and seemed to be moving more or less unchecked into the chief and most important parts of Syrian territory.

Chief work of defense was being done by Nazi warplanes, said to be based on northern Syrian airfields like Aleppo, principal air center of the country.

Britain was not referring in her dispatches to the Syrian advance as a victory, but was rather regarding it as simply a tactically important move to circumvent an expected German move, or at least to meet it on a battleground farther removed from Palestine and Iraq oil fields.

It was obvious that the big Syrian airfields were the prime objective, and that if Britain could get hold of them and defend them with resident assistance, a good battle might be put up on Syrian soil, and protect the "backdoor" entrance to Suez and Alexandria.

But the serious resistance near the coasting, and in southwestern Syria made it look as though Britain's success in this objective would not be won without a good deal of fighting.

In general, however, the first advances were meeting with a good deal of resident approval, and with some defections of French colonials to the DeGaulle standard.

CHURCHILL:

On Spot

Most seriously since the time he took over leadership of the war effort of Britain, Churchill found himself "on the spot" because of the Crete mishap—and words flew bitterly around commons and on the editorial pages of British newspapers as Churchill defended his program.

The British leader was holding firm—refusing cabinet modification or any step that would even look like an admission that the Churchill government was a flop at handling the war.

Criticism of Churchill was far less bitter than that which was directed at Chamberlain, but it was still far stronger than anything which had previously been leveled at him.

Much of it came from Leslie Hore-Belisha, deposed minister of war. And Churchill turned on the former cabinet member and practically told him to hold his tongue and to recall that the war minister was in a "momentary condition which he laid it down."

Summing up the Crete disaster, he laid it to inadequate control of the air, said the battle was "war-winning" and that it cost the Germans a major effort, and resulted in the loss of 17,000 men and 18 planes not to mention many surface ships.

Answering the "why" of not enough planes, he said "they were not to be had" unless Britain had been willing to denude the island itself, and that he did not believe it a good policy to try to be safe everywhere at the cost of being strong nowhere.

IRISH:

Anomaly

The Irish Free State, having denied President Roosevelt's request that it furnish this country with landing spots for ships bearing aid to Britain, also air and sea bases generally, found itself more and more in an anomalous position—at a stone's throw from Britain at war, and yet neither an aide of Britain nor of Germany.

Irish cities were being bombed by Germany.

How to become A SKILLED DRIVER

By RAY W. SHERMAN

FORD GOOD DRIVERS LEAGUE

(EDITOR'S NOTE: We believe many motorists of this community would drive better if they knew better how to drive. In the interest of safety, we will publish from time to time excerpts from the book, "How to Be a Skilled Driver," written for the Ford Good Drivers League by Ray W. Sherman, noted authority on driving. These excerpts are reprinted through courtesy of the Ford Motor Company.)

BE A GOOD SPORT

A good driver has to be a good sport. When he notices another car trying to pass him in traffic, he lessens his speed and lets the other fellow in. Why not let him pass? It's evident he is driving faster than you are. Safety requires that you give a little.

If the light turns green, you theoretically have the right of way, but don't take it for granted. Maybe that fellow coming up the street has poor brakes. Maybe his eyesight is bad. In any event, make sure he's going to stop.

If a pedestrian decides to cross the street in the flow of traffic, the driver must know how to handle the emergency. To a skilled driver, only one person has the "right of way" and that is the "other fellow." Be a good sportsman.

Training For Defense

• By Rufus T. Strohm

Dean, International Correspondence Schools

TOO much emphasis cannot be placed on the marshaling of our man-power, our machines, and our natural resources in the stupendous program of all-out preparedness. Schools and colleges, too, have a heavy responsibility in this program.

If we are effectively to provide for the common defense of democracy and freedom in today's world, every individual and institution in our nation must perform a proper part. Both educators and students must do their work with the same speed and efficiency that is demanded of soldiers and workmen.

Defense training is a widely discussed matter. The experts are pooling their opinions and every source of supply is being exploited to aid the speed-up in training. It is generally agreed by these same experts that the rate of employment in defense industries would be faster if it were not for a shortage of supervisory personnel—managers and foremen.

In the rush to train workers for special jobs, so that they may do certain jobs with their hands, we should not lose sight of the fact that America's ultimate success depends largely upon moral and spiritual preparedness. Perhaps we should encourage this spiritual state by warning young men to give some thought to the longer view—that of preparing for permanent careers.

Educators have a job to do in keeping students interested in the future as well as the present. The task of the moment is pressing, but it is not everything. Democracy is founded on more than jobs. It is a state of mind, properly nourished and properly balanced.

OUR DEMOCRACY

—by Mat

THE REDWOOD IS AN AMERICAN TREE. IT OUTLASTS ALL OTHER TREES. OUR OLDEST REDWOOD IS THE OLDEST LIVING THING IN THE WORLD.

EXAMINATION OF THE ROOTS OF A REDWOOD SHOW THAT THEY ARE STRONG AND FAR SPREAD, SO ARE THE ROOTS OF OUR DEMOCRACY.

EXAMINATION OF THE GROWTH RINGS AND THE WOOD STRUCTURE OF A REDWOOD SHOWS BY SCARS AND BURNS THAT IT CAN TAKE PUNISHMENT AND STAND UP UNDER IT. SO CAN OUR DEMOCRACY.

Charles Baker of Lake Villa Dies

Charles Baker, a resident of Lake Villa, passed away Saturday evening after a long illness. A few years ago Mr. and Mrs. Baker came here from Iowa to live with their daughter, Mrs. Blumenschein, and Mrs. Baker passed away two years ago. Mr. Baker has failed since her death. He was born 77 years ago at Beaver Dam, Wis., and he and Mrs. Baker were married nearly fifty years ago. He had been cared for in the home of his daughter until Wednesday, when he became much worse and was taken to the hospital.

One sister, Mrs. Mattie Plank of Minneapolis and a sister-in-law, Mrs. Edward Baker of Winona, Wis., survive besides his daughter, Mrs. Blumenschein, and one son, Edward, of Chicago. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon from the Strang funeral home in Antioch with burial in the Ansgola cemetery at Lake Villa.

Co. Chorus Group Enjoys Get-Acquainted Party

Since the Lake County Chorus is made up of members from all over the county and since many of them did not know each other before joining the chorus, the officers of the organization entertained the chorus with a get-acquainted party after their rehearsal on Monday evening. Several amusing get-acquainted games were played, after which ice cream and cakes were served by the committee, consisting of Mrs. W. A. Symons, Chensey Brooks, Eleanor Henning, and Ross Harris. The next rehearsal of the chorus will be on Monday evening, June 23, at 8 p.m. at the Farm and Home Bureau Hall in Grayslake. Anyone wishing to join the chorus may still do so.

Robert Sorenson, 24, of Lake Villa, suffered sprains, bruises and cuts when an automobile in which he was riding with three other young people was struck by a hit-and-run motorist Saturday. Sorenson and his companions, Miss Evelyn Helvelkamp of Fox Lake; Miss Mary Tower of Gages Lake and Ervin Barnstable, Jr., of Lake Villa, were riding north on Route 21 near Belvidere road when a car in front of them suddenly made a U-turn and collided with them, before fleeing south on 21.

Otto S. Klass spent Wednesday in Chicago on business.

Dorothy Ann Dancers Will Present Revue
A revue by the Dorothy Ann dancers will be staged at Antioch Township High school some time early in July, according to an announcement made today by Miss Dorothy Ann, director of studios in lake shore towns, including Kenosha and Waukegan. This evening the dancers are giving a revue in Waukegan, and tomorrow night they will stage one in Kenosha. The date of the Antioch program will be announced later.

The next meeting will be held July 11.
